THE SCHOOL WHERE RECORDS ARE MADE

for Concentration

Concentration is Power

Concentration is the ability to control the mind—to focus it upon any task, any time. To gain such power is the key to success.

Every failure in school work can almost always be traced to one of the following types of mind:

1. The Grasshopper mind—the mind that nibbles at everything and masters nothing.
2. The Colorless mind—the mind that is unable to picture or use words. It is the most pathetic of all types, because it is almost wordless.
3. The I-Don't-Care mind—the mind that has become hardened by discouragement.
4. The Timid mind—the mind that lacks self-assertion.
5. The Hazy mind—the mind that is never certain of anything.
6. The Pre-occupied mind—the mind that is never at home.
7. The Frivolous mind—the mind that regards all work as useless.

At the Clark School for Concentration the foregoing types of mind have been carefully studied, and as a consequence very gratifying results have been obtained. The students of the Clark School reflect their teachers through the records they make.

"Concentration enables one to produce more work and of better quality; it clears the mind of cobwebs, develops judgment and memory. It transmutes mediocrity to greatness."

The Handsome School Buildings Are Superbly Located

The Clark School for Concentration occupies the four buildings on the Northwest Corner of 72nd Street and West End Avenue, in which the Girls' School is housed, and the Boys' School Building on the Southeast Corner.

Parents can be certain that all appointments and furnishings are as near perfection as possible. No thought or expense has been spared to insure comfort, health and homelike surroundings.

Country School for Boys

The Boys' Country School, in the Shawangunk Mountains, near Stockholm, New Jersey, is exceptionally desirable.

A Vacation School

for Girls and Young Children is maintained during the summer at Preston Park, Pa., on a beautiful estate owned by the Clark School.

SCHOOL
for

This unique school is at 267 West End Avenue, New York. It is in charge of children-loving teachers who study the desires of their little pupils and try to make them happy. Telephone Columbus 1535.

A year ago the Clark School fitted up one of its buildings for children of from two to ten years of age. An unusually large dormitory, together with a spacious outdoor and indoor playground, is an attractive feature. The bedrooms are light and spacious and the dining-hall is roomy and homelike.

"The Clark School for Young Children," now well established, has proved to be most successful. The bright sayings of tots from two to five are both entertaining and instructive. Experiences as grave as the following can be heard from little tots of less than three summers:

Jane says, "I learned to talk here."
Mary chimes in, "I learned to walk here."
Three-year-old Harry asserts, "I learned to sleep here."
Two-year-old Hilma adds, "I learned to creep here."
Little Alice lights up with, "I learned to wink here."
Five-year-old James cries, "I learned to think here."
Practical Anna breaks in, "I learned to read here," and Business-like Johnny closes with, "I learned to write here."

The Principal will be at the Main Office (Girls' School) from 12 A. M. to 2 P. M. and from 4 P. M. to 6 P. M. daily and will be glad to interview parents. Write for illustrated book containing information.

Fall Term Commences Monday, Sept. 13th.
